[ARGUABLY]
THE WORLD'S MOST USEFUL
GIFT CATALOGUE

Australian Pacific College's really useful Christmas gift 2006.

Photo: This girl goes to the Kalroo Community Primary School in Pakistan. She's one of the first children in her village able to attend a local school, saving a long daily journey to the government school.

If you would like to give a gift similar to the one you have received, please browse the 2006 Gift Catalogue at www.usefulgifts.org

This gift covers the cost of workbooks, exercise books, pencils and paper, or slate and chalk for a child in a community primary school.

This gift has been selected from TEAR Australia's Arguably the World's Most Useful Gift Catalogue. It is part of a long-term development project that enables very poor people to create real and lasting change in their lives.
