Certificate III in Entrepreneurship and New Business

Starting a new business can feel like a big challenge, especially in the early planning stages. But don't worry—you're not alone! Many successful entrepreneurs have been exactly where you are. With the right skills and guidance, you can turn your ideas into reality. Our Certificate III in Entrepreneurship and New Business is designed to equip you with practical tools and confidence to navigate the entrepreneurial journey and set you up for success. The course will enable students to gain the skills to use the Environmental Interaction Framework to evaluate new ideas, and draw upon contemporary enterprise tools to evaluate risk and present ideas to stakeholders. Developing these essential entrepreneurial and small business skills will assist graduates as they progress to high-level qualifications or employment in a career guided by entrepreneurship perspectives.
