CUA60320

Advanced Diploma of Graphic Design

Enhance your graphic and typographic skills while learning how to establish and negotiate a design brief and manage design realisation.

This course reflects the role of individuals who have highly specialised technical, creative and conceptual skills in visual communication to conceive, negotiate and realise design solutions. Practice at this level is underpinned by the application of visual communication, design theory, history and the ability to critically analyse and synthesise information from a range of sources. Advanced communication, organisational and project management skills are also required.
