FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

ABOUT LESSONS

QUESTION: My child is a beginner level student. Can they study in this program?

ANSWER: No problem. We welcome students at all levels.

QUESTION: My child is unsure. Can we apply for a shorter study period first and extend after starting the course?

ANSWER: Yes, your child can extend their studies after starting the course if there is still capacity to accommodate them.

QUESTION: Can we shorten the length of the study period if my child isn't enjoying the course?

ANSWER: Yes, however, the tuition fee is non-refundable after the course begins.

QUESTION: Am I able to enrol in an English course while my child attends the program?

ANSWER: Yes, you can. We hope you will both have a valuable learning experience with us at EU.

QUESTION: Is there any age limit for studying as an adult? I'm a grandparent.

ANSWER: There is no age limit in any of our adult courses.

QUESTION: My child will study for 3 weeks. Can I attend English lessons for just a week?

ANSWER: Yes. You don't need to study for the same length as your child.

ABOUT ACTIVITIES

QUESTION: Can I join the activities with my child?

ANSWER: We encourage parents not to accompany their children on activities so students can have more opportunities to socialise with their new friends from other countries.

QUESTION: What do we need to bring for the activities?

ANSWER: This is dependent on the weather and the places we visit. We recommend comfortable shoes, water, sunscreen, hat and an umbrella.
